Dare to be a Daniel - Confessions of a Pentecostal Methodist

Author: Darrell Royce Curtis

Illustrator:

What is it like to stand alone... against opposition, prejudice and misunderstanding? Darrell was an early witness to the baptism in the Holy Spirit—particularly in the Methodist church in New Zealand. He knew what it was like to stand against prejudice, tradition and church hierarchy. Dare to be a Daniel is his account of an ever-deepening walk with God, and what it means to be 'filled with the Spirit.' This book will appeal to those of every denomination through the passage of deliverance healing, and hope for those who are searching for an intimate relationship with God.

Rally Past, Present & Future

Author: Graham Ashby

Illustrator:

The Every Boy's and Every Girl's Rally movement has been one of the most prolific Christian community youth outreaches over the last 75 years. From its humble inception it grew to become an international phenomenon. The aim from countless leaders was to bring the Good News of Jesus Christ to thousands of children around the globe. God blessed their vibrant efforts and on every continent lives were changed, families received hope, communities were united, and countries were enhanced. This brief history recognizes the committed men and women who boldly and tirelessly gave their energies to the vision and purpose of the Rally movement. Their story must never be forgotten. Their selfless acts demand our attention. Their example stirs our responsibilities. Their legacy challenges our future.

Finding the Keys; Reaching Thai Folk Buddhists with the Gospe

Author: Peter & Waew Martyn

Illustrator:

In this inspiring book Peter and Waew Martyn share practical insights gained from 13 years of church planting in unreached villages in North East Thailand. As well as giving an understanding of the rural Buddhist worldview, it provides practical wisdom gained from many years of experience of both evangelism and discipling of Buddhist converts. This book would be a valuable resource for those called to work in North East Thailand and also missionaries working in other Buddhist countries in South East Asia.

Weapons Of Peace

Author: Peter Anderson

Illustrator:

WEAPONS OF PEACE is set in South Africa in the period 1800-1852. Based on the lives of William and Johanna Anderson, it is a thrilling story of adventure, trial, romance, tragedy and faith. William, one of the earliest missionaries sent out by the London Missionary Society, has been described as a true friend and champion of the indigenous peoples of South Africa. "Splendidly researched and sensitively scripted... I commend to one and all this tender but telling and triumphant tale of adventure and high achievement for our Lord Jesus Christ." – Dr Michael Cassidy, African Enterprise, South Africa. "The seasons of life and ministry lie exposed within these pages: conflict, revival, failure, fruitfulness, suffering, and sin. And then we discover two people inhabiting those seasons with a stubborn commitment to dignity, reconciliation, and peace... a story of realism and tenderness with a resonance in our times and cultures." – Dr Paul Windsor, Director of Langham Preaching & Former Principal of Carey Baptist College, Auckland, New Zealand.

Ethel's Story

Author: Rosemary Carey

Illustrator:

This historical novel traces the life of Ethel Louise Jackson from her birthplace in Warwickshire, UK in 1878, to New Zealand, then Fiji, where she trained as a nurse. Ethel met Dr Daniel Coto in Rawene, Hokianga, New Zealand. In 1907 the couple married and moved to Koroit, Australia and raised five children. Ethel's Story is a portrayal of true love and Christian service against racial prejudice set in the turbulent times of WW1 and WW2. It is faithfully recounted in novel format by her granddaughter as a sequel to Rosemary Carey's first novel The Walnut Legacy.

The Walnut Legacy

Author: Rosemary Carey

Illustrator:

This novel is Thomas Coto's testimony, written by his great granddaughter Rosemary Carey. Thomas Coto, as an ordinary young Chinese boy escaped civilian terror from Amoy China in 1840. By 1883 he had become an extraordinary Australian citizen. Overcoming racial and cultural odds with his quiet unassuming Christian faith, he found true love and happiness in marriage as he wholeheartedly assimilated himself in Sale, New South Wales, Australia, by successfully farming and raising a family of five children. His legacy continues to inspire new generations and influences many others. Now available in Cantonese and Mandarin.

We're Going to Fly High

Author: Valmai Redhead

Illustrator:

On a crisp early morning in 2012, eleven people boarded a hot air balloon in New Zealand's Wairarapa district for what should have been an idyllic flight. Less than an hour later, that flight became the deadliest ballooning disaster ever to occur in New Zealand's history. Chrisjan Jordaan and his girlfriend Alexis, were among the passengers. As his family and friends reeled from the news, Chrisjan's life and legacy became a source of inspiration and motivation to many. From his roots in South Africa, to the farming communities of Gore, to his student days at Southland Boy's High School and later in Wellington, We're Going to Fly High tells of a young man full of faith and adventure whose character, courage and passion continues to impact another generation.

The Dragon of Peakay

Author: Robert Prins

Illustrator:

“Go outside and chase dragons or something.” James and Ron thought chasing dragons was a great idea, but then it turned into something much more real. James and Ron are the Chosen Twins. Will they be able to save the kingdom of Peakay from the ravages of an evil dragon? What dangers and adventures will they have on the way? And how could a giant ball of slobber help? I am not telling you the answers. You will have to join the twins in the Dragon of Peakay to find out. The Dragon of Peakay is a gripping adventure full of great lessons on prayer, working together, sacrifice, obedience and Bible reading, and much more.

The Barn Chronicles Set (4 books)

Author: Rosie Boom

Illustrator:

The Barn Chronicles is a work in progress – actually we are still living it! It is a series of four books that tell the story of our family’s move to the country and our attempt to simplify our lifestyle as we live in a 90-year-old barn in rural Northland, New Zealand. They relate our dramas and adventures, mistakes, fun, laughter and tears. The books are written through the eyes of Milly, who was ten when we moved into the barn. She is a feisty, plucky girl who loves adventures and animals. She has gathered an evergrowing menagerie around her – chickens, Indian Runner ducks, a horse, a house cow ... life is never dull with Milly around!

Ko te Rangatira O te Awa

Author: Na Nicolette Parsons

Illustrator: Na Emma Hughes-Martinet I whakaahua

This is a fully exclusive Te Reo version of 'The Boss of the River' lovingly rewritten in Te Reo by Dallas Harema. We say rewritten rather than translated as Dallas explains, it is not always possible to translate word for word into Te Reo. Sometimes it may be a feeling or an idea that needs to be conveyed. The result is a beautiful Te Reo book that now sits in the Auckland Library Special Collections Room as well as many other homes and schools in New Zealand.

Bottoms, Grandma's & Random Superpowers

Author: Nicolette Parsons

Illustrator: Andy Knopp

Bottoms, Grandmas & Random Superpowers is a creative book in full colour - 228mm x 152mm (9x7inch) - thoughts from a young kiwi boy and how he sees and interacts with his extended family. It is an early reader with snippets (short chapters). With humour to keep the reader involved and bright colourful fun illustrations, there is something for everyone! All children nowadays need more 'chats' with Grandma or maybe their Great Uncle! What Superpowers might they have?! It is interspersed with thoughts and questions allowing the reader to think about their own talents and skills, including emotional skills and how these can benefit themselves and others! These 'Adult' thoughts will also give any teacher, parent, counsellor or teacher aide, the tools to encourage the all important conversations around individual strengths while also encouraging interaction and thinking around extended family or significant adult members.

Flourish - Sixty Devotions to Refresh Your Heart

Author: Chris Bovill

Illustrator:

Do you ever wonder if Jesus really sees you and cares about you as intimately as He did for those we read about in the Bible? Chris Bovill wondered exactly the same thing. Come with Chris on a journey of discovering the adventure and freedom that come from surrendering to the Saviour. As you read, you will be left in no doubt that amongst the highs and lows of life you are loved immensely, cared for deeply, and that you can enjoy a purposeful, vibrant relationship with the one who created you. These sixty devotions are an invitation to glimpse Chris's life, from her travels in Paraguay, to her days as a newly-wed, to raising six children on a farm in rural New Zealand. Her prayer is that you too will experience those sweet moments in His presence where grace and mercy flow and spiritual growth begins. This is a book to restore your faith in a loving God and refresh your heart so that you can truly flourish.

Romans 9-11 God's Plan for the Salvation of Ethnic Israel

Author: Rosealie Robinson

Illustrator:

This book comes from my Masters Dissertation of Romans 9-11. It seeks to answer the following question: What is Paul's understanding of ethnic Israel in God's plan for salvation, in light of the coming of Christ? Throughout this study, "Israel" means "ethnic Israel." As such, it has a corporate sense whereby it represents certain Jews (the elected people group physically descended from Abraham, Isaac and Jacob who God made his promises too), that are found within "the nation of Israel." Background details are provided and a summary of the main issues in Romans 9-10:21; 11:13-24; and 33-36 are given. An exegesis of Romans 11:1-12 and 25-32 is also carried out. Questions such as: Has God's promises to ethnic Israel failed? Is God unjust? Is God immoral? ... are raised and answered. And a reworked interpretation of Paul's metaphors is presented, one which gives an alternative view to "replacement theology." The meaning of "All Israel" is also explained. It will interest any reader who wants to gain more insight into God's plan for ethnic Israel and who maybe looking for a fresh interpretation of this passage.

Waiting To Be Well

Author: Angela C Millen

Illustrator:

Pushing through another day, you may wonder whether life will always feel so lonely, purposeless and difficult. Does anyone else share my struggle? Can there be good amidst this unravelling of body and mind? Is there anything I can look forward to? In the style of letters to a friend, Angela C Millen shares from her own wrestling through three years of post-viral chronic fatigue and the surprise of recovery. Offering company, comfort and courage, she invites you to see goodness in your own story, whether in sickness or in health.

For King and Kingdom: Recovering the Lost Paradigm

Author: Darren Green

Illustrator:

For 2000 years, we have preached a gospel focused on being saved from hell and going to heaven. We have made Jesus our Savior and Lord but not our King. Despite the Kingdom of God being the most important message of all time that Jesus spoke on, like the elephant in the room, we have simply ignored it or treated it as an abstract concept. For King and Kingdom recovers this lost paradigm. Bringing to the fore a lost King and Kingdom, it challenges us to consider how we should be living our daily lives accordingly within it.

Redemptive Grief: Finding Healing from Traumatic Loss and Unresolved Grief

Author: Gaynor Lincoln

Illustrator:

“He attempted to take his own life and isn’t expected to live.” No one ever wants to hear those words. How then do we then deal with the perplexing and painful feelings deep within us? We can stuff them deep where they fester, spurring out to cover those who awkwardly offer help. Or we can courageously journey through grief, experiencing God’s redemptive, healing presence and a deeper inner freedom. We can learn how God transforms grief into a redemptive experience, which rekindles hope and brings transformation. Empowered, we reach out to other wounded amongst us and wandering, wounded souls adrift in the world.

The Ophanim

Author: JH Jones

Illustrator:

When historians revisit the poetry of the 3rd dynasty, any interpretation of the complete body of work has to be seen in the light of the Transcendence event of the Try'nn Era. Although understanding those who rejected the enlightenment phase of the event has been recorded extensively, it is hoped an exegetical examination of the verse of the period will allow many Arach to revisit their decision to remain corporeal
